ABOUT US

The Centre of Excellence for Civil Registration and Vital Statistics (CRVS) Systems is a global knowledge hub. We collaborate with organizations and experts to broker access to information and expertise. This includes global standards, tools, research evidence, and good practice.

The Centre is housed at the International Development Research Centre (IDRC) and funded by Global Affairs Canada and IDRC. We were established in 2015 as a global public good under the framework of the Global Financing Facility. Our work is part of the Government of Canada's investment in improving reproductive, maternal, newborn, child, and adolescent health and nutrition (RMNCAH-N) outcomes.
